Article 1 Purpose

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish the wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment for faculty in the bargaining unit, and to provide the Employer and the Union with a clear statement of the procedures by which the faculty in the bargaining unit and the Employer interact in the academic enterprise.

The parties are dedicated to cultivating a constructive and harmonious collective bargaining relationship as part of their shared commitment to carrying out the mission of the University.

The Employer and the Union, desiring to cooperate with each other in mutual respect and harmony, have agreed to the provisions of this Agreement.

Article 2 Recognition

2.1 Bargaining Unit

1. The University of Pittsburgh (the “University” or “Employer”) recognizes the United Steel, Paper and Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial and Service Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, CLC (the “Union”), pursuant to the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board (“PLRB”) NISI Order of Certification, dated October 28, 2021, and the Order Directing Submission of Eligibility List (“ODSEL”), dated April 16, 2021 in Case No. PERA-R-19-2-W, as the exclusive representative of the employees in the bargaining unit described as follows, for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment pursuant to the Public Employe Relations Act (“PERA”).¹

Included:

2. All full-time and regular part-time tenure-stream and non-tenure-stream faculty and librarians in the Provost Area, Health Science Schools, and School of Law, employed by the University of Pittsburgh at all campuses in the Commonwealth.

Excluded:

3. Faculty in the School of Medicine, research associates, post-doctoral associates, graduate student employees, non-faculty professionals, and all non-professionals, guards, supervisors, managerial, and confidential employees as defined in the Act.

¹ The parties agree that the excluded positions as described in the ODSEL are not determinative of the employment status of any such position.

4. Pursuant to paragraph 11, pp. 20-21 in the ODSEL, department chairs, division chairs, division chiefs, vice chairs, deans, provost, vice provosts, vice chancellors, senior associate deans, vice deans, associate deans, campus presidents, regional vice presidents, assistant deans, associate vice chancellors, associate vice provosts.

5. Pursuant to paragraph 12, pp. 21 in the ODSEL, supervisory/managerial librarians identified in Appendix A.

6. Pursuant to paragraph 13, pp. 21-24 in the ODSEL, Directors (and Assistant and Associate Directors where noted) of centers, institutes, programs and labs identified in Appendix B.

7. Pursuant to paragraph 7, p. 20 of the ODSEL, any employee whose primary employment type is not “Faculty,” including individuals with faculty appointments who are classified as “Executive” or “Staff” or “Post-Docs.”

8. Pursuant to paragraph 8, p. 20 of the ODSEL, any employee whose status with the University is as an unpaid volunteer or dually employed.

9. Pursuant to paragraph 10, p. 20 of the ODSEL, individuals on long term disability.

2.2 Definitions

1. “Non-tenure stream” and “appointment stream” shall be interpreted as synonymous.

2. “Regular part-time non-tenure stream faculty” are referred to herein as “part-time appointment stream faculty” in this Agreement. “Part-time non-tenure stream faculty” shall refer to faculty who meet the following criteria:

- a) (i) Employment in any two (2) of the three (3) most recent Fall, Summer, and Spring semesters [e.g., for determining eligibility in Fall semester 2023, an appointment in Fall semester 2023 and an appointment in either the Summer semester 2023 or Spring semester 2023]; or (ii) meeting both of the following: (1) employment in any one (1) of the three (3) most recent Fall, Summer, and Spring semesters [e.g., for determining eligibility in Fall semester 2023, an appointment in Fall semester 2023 (or Summer semester 2023 or Spring semester 2023)]; AND (2) employment in any one (1) of the six (6) most recent Fall, Summer, and Spring semesters preceding the semesters in criterion (ii)(1) [e.g., for determining eligibility in Fall semester 2023, an appointment in Fall semester 2022 or Fall semester 2021].
- b) Eligibility is determined on a semester basis.

3. “Bargaining unit faculty member,” “faculty,” and “faculty member” will be used in this Agreement to refer collectively to employees of the Employer holding a position set forth in Section 1 as included in the bargaining unit and represented by the Union for collective bargaining purposes.

2.3 Modifications to the Bargaining Unit

The Employer and the Union may discuss inclusion of positions in the bargaining unit or the exclusion of positions from the bargaining unit, subject to PERA.

Article 3 Academic Freedom and Ethical Conduct

3.1 Academic Freedom

1. Bargaining unit faculty members are entitled to full freedom from interference to conduct research in their academic fields and to publish their results, subject to adequate performance of their other academic duties² and an understanding with university authorities regarding research for "pecuniary return."

2. Bargaining unit faculty members have the right to translate their knowledge and understanding into effective instruction appropriately grounded in principles and practices of disciplines and professions. Bargaining unit faculty members are entitled to freedom in the classroom³ to discuss their subject, but they should be careful not to introduce controversial material that has no relation to that subject and should provide an atmosphere conducive to learning.

3. Bargaining unit faculty members are entitled to speak and write as private citizens, free from institutional censorship or discipline, but as scholars and educators they should at all times⁴ be accurate, exercise appropriate restraint, and show respect for the opinions of others. Faculty may list their institutional affiliation for identification purposes but should not present themselves as spokespersons for the University of Pittsburgh unless expressly authorized to do so in writing by the Employer.

² Faculty members do not lose their right to academic freedom, with respect to research, if they are not adequately performing their other duties. However, academic freedom does not excuse faculty members from adequately performing their other duties, complying with University policy and complying with any applicable conditions related to funding. Academic freedom in research is subject to certain limitations, such as professional competence and ethics and does not mean that individual faculty members are free to teach or publish whatever they want without repercussions.

³ The concept of freedom in the classroom applies to online teaching as well as related instructional activities.

⁴ When faculty members speak or write as citizens, they should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes special obligations. As educators, they should remember that the public may judge their profession and their institution by their utterances.

4. The parties recognize that the interpretation and application of this Section 3.1 may differ based on the academic, educational or institutional context, as well as the regulatory and accreditation requirements applicable to each academic unit.

3.2 Ethical Conduct

The parties acknowledge the ethical obligations of bargaining unit faculty members inherent to the advancement of knowledge and fulfillment of their shared mission, including the faculty's full performance of all duties and obligations of their appointment and the commitment to support the responsible exercise of academic freedom by oneself and others.

The following are principles of ethical conduct that are assumed by bargaining unit faculty members. Bargaining faculty members should:

- a) Observe and uphold the ethical standards of their discipline and the Employer in the pursuit and communication of scientific and scholarly knowledge.
- b) Treat students, staff, colleagues, and the public with fairness, dignity, and respect in accordance with this Agreement and Employer policy when discharging their professional duties.
- c) Respect and maintain the integrity of the evaluation process and evaluate students, staff, and colleagues fairly.
- d) Contribute to the academic and administrative functioning of their academic unit and the University.
- e) Conduct themselves with honesty and integrity in all activities that impact the work or academic environment.

Article 4 Dues Deductions

4.1 Deductions

During the term of the Agreement, the Employer agrees to deduct regular dues and assessments, if applicable, from each paycheck of employees for whom the Union has provided a written dues deduction authorization. Such deductions shall be promptly remitted to the International Secretary-Treasurer of the Union no later than ten (10) days following the end of the month in which they were deducted, provided the University may remit via ACH or, if necessary, wire transfer.

4.2 Dues

The dues rate for this bargaining unit for the term of this Agreement shall be 1.5% of gross earnings for all bargaining unit faculty members, plus a $10.00 initiation fee applicable to bargaining unit faculty members who join the bargaining unit after the effective date of this Agreement. The Union reserves the right to change the dues rate, provided that the formula shall, during the life of this Agreement, remain a flat percentage of gross earnings (for example, 1.4% or 1.6%). The Union shall provide notice by email to the Director of Employee and Labor Relations or their designee at least one hundred and twenty (120) days in advance of such changes.

4.3 Revocations

The Employee's dues deduction authorization shall remain in effect until expressly revoked in writing by the Employee in accordance with the terms of the authorization. When it is determined by the Union that an employee's payroll deductions should cease, the Union will be responsible for notifying the Employer in writing. The Employer shall rely on the information provided by the Union to cancel or change authorizations due to revocation. Updates to deductions shall be made by the University within thirty (30) days of receipt from the Union of changes to dues authorizations and/or assessments.

4.4 Political Action Fund

The Employer shall also deduct and transmit, to the Treasurer of the United Steelworkers Political Action Fund (USW/PAF), voluntary contributions to the USW Political Action Fund from the earnings of those employees who voluntarily authorize such contributions on forms provided for that purpose by the USW/PAF. All deductions for the Political Action Fund shall be a flat dollar amount. The Union shall provide notice of any voluntary PAF contributions or changes thereto by email to the Director of Employee and Labor Relations or their designee at least thirty (30) days prior to the requested effective date.

4.5 Electronic Authorization

All dues deduction authorizations will be sent by the Union via email, as PDF attachments, to the Director of Employee and Labor Relations or their designee.

4.6 Indemnification

The Union shall indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders, or judgments brought or issued against the Employer as a result of any action taken or not taken by the Employer under the provisions of this Article.

Article 5 Shared Governance

The parties recognize and support the role of shared governance bodies at the University. This Agreement is not intended to limit the faculty role in governance as provided by University, school, regional campus, library, department and other academic unit policies and bylaws.

The Employer will follow its legal obligations to bargain under PERA § 701, as applicable, and to meet and discuss under PERA § 702, as applicable. The parties agree that communication and collaboration between the Employer and bargaining unit faculty members through shared governance on topics other than wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment for bargaining unit faculty members does not violate PERA § 701 or § 702 or any other PERA provision. Collaboration between the Union and University Senate is encouraged, where appropriate.

Each academic unit will have the right to develop local governance bylaws, policies and procedures, which shall be approved by the Provost and the Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences, as applicable. All local governance bylaws, policies and procedures, shall be reviewed periodically by the Union and the Employer to ensure they are consistent with this Agreement. The process for the development or revision of local workload policies, criteria and guidelines for evaluation, and/or criteria and guidelines for promotion and tenure will provide opportunity for meaningful participation by the bargaining unit faculty members to whom the policies and/or criteria and guidelines would apply.

Faculty shall retain the right to speak on all matters of University governance at all levels, including ardent advocacy in support of or in opposition to particular policies and practices. The parties agree to collaborate in cultivating a governance environment that encourages broad and diverse participation while also permitting vigorous disagreement in the course of deliberation.

Article 6

Labor Management Meetings

6.1 Meetings and Notice

1. The parties agree, through their designated representatives, not to exceed five (5) per party unless by mutual agreement, to meet once in the Fall, Spring, and Summer terms, or on the reasonable request of either party. If a party requests a meeting, the parties shall schedule such meeting within ten (10) business days or a mutually agreeable date and the requesting party shall provide an agenda at least two (2) business days before the meeting. For regularly scheduled term meetings, both parties shall provide agenda items they expect to raise. Such meetings shall not be for the purpose of conducting collective bargaining negotiations, but shall be for the sole purpose of appraising any problem which may have arisen in the application, administration, or interpretation of this Agreement, or of problems of general concern to either party. Therefore, such meetings shall not modify, add to, or detract from the provisions of this Agreement.

2. The Employer and the Union are encouraged to raise with the other party matters of importance in the administration of this Agreement.

Article 7 Health and Safety

7.1 Standards and Reporting

1. The parties will abide by all applicable City, County, State and Federal laws and regulations as well as all University rules, policies, and programs regarding safety. The Employer will continue to provide a safe working environment in accordance with University policy and law, if applicable, and not reduce the current health and safety standards at the University. The Employer may promulgate work rules and operational policies with respect to health and safety and will endeavor to provide the Union with notice of any changes to University-wide Administration and Operations (AO) and Community Standards (CS) policies relating to workplace safety.

2. Bargaining unit faculty members shall immediately report in writing any and all working conditions that they can reasonably identify as unsafe in accordance with University policy and training.

7.2 Labor-Management Health and Safety Meetings

The Labor-Management Committee shall hold dedicated Health and Safety (HS) meetings to address issues related to workplace health and safety. These meetings shall be in addition to the regularly scheduled Labor-Management Committee meetings for each term (see Article 6). The number of HS meetings shall not exceed three (3) per term except by mutual agreement by the parties. In addition to the regular Labor-Management Committee members, participants in the HS meetings may include bargaining unit faculty members on the relevant internal Union committees and additional Employer representatives. The number of additional participants in the HS meetings shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties.

7.3 Training

The Employer will make training on health and safety available to bargaining unit faculty members consistent with their job duties. The parties recognize certain trainings may be required for performance of certain job duties.

7.4 No Retaliation

No bargaining unit faculty member will be subject to discrimination, discipline or termination for reporting unsafe working conditions.

Article 8 Grievance and Arbitration

8.1 Grievance Procedure

1. A "grievance" is an allegation by the Union or Employer that there has been a violation involving the interpretation or administration of an Article(s) and Section(s) of the Agreement. The parties agree that, for the Employer, the Union and all bargaining unit faculty members, this Article is the exclusive procedure applicable to alleged violations of this Agreement, including disciplinary action taken with respect to bargaining unit faculty, and waive the right to any alternative procedure unless expressly provided for in this Agreement.

2. For purposes of computing time under this Article, dates on which the Employer is closed or in recess for faculty (as listed in the Academic Calendar) shall be excluded.

8.2 Union and Faculty Member Grievance

STEP ONE

Within thirty (30) calendar days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance, the Union or bargaining unit faculty member shall present a grievance orally to their department or unit head. The department or unit head or their designee will investigate the grievance as they shall deem appropriate and respond to the Union and/or the grievant within twenty (20) calendar days. The Employer and the Union may agree in writing to additional time to resolve grievances at Step One. Unless agreed otherwise, settlements at this step shall be made without precedential effect.

STEP TWO

If the grievance has not been resolved at Step One, the grievant or the Union shall reduce the grievance to writing, stating the facts and listing the Articles and Sections of the Agreement upon which the grievance is based and submit the written grievance to the department or unit head, or their designee within twenty (20) calendar days of receipt of the Employer's Step One response. The department or unit head or their designee will have twenty (20) calendar days following the receipt of the written grievance to investigate the matter as they deem appropriate, discuss the matter with the grievant and Union and, where appropriate, submit a written response to the grievant and Union. The Union may appeal the grievance to the next step within twenty (20) calendar days of the Employer's denial.

STEP THREE

If the grievance has not been resolved at Step Two, the Provost, or their designee, will meet with the International Staff Representative of the Union to attempt to resolve the grievance within twenty (20) calendar days of the appeal to this step. If the parties are unable to resolve the grievance, the Employer shall, within twenty (20) calendar days of the meeting, present the Union with a written response.

Should the Employer fail to respond at any step within the timeframes contained in this provision, the grievance will be deemed denied and the Union may proceed to the next step in the procedure.

8.3 Employer Grievance

Employer grievances will be presented at Step Three. The timelines in Step Three and Arbitration shall apply to Employer grievances.

8.4 Tenure Revocation Grievance

Revocation of a bargaining unit faculty member's tenure status pursuant to the procedures set forth in Chapter II, Section 4.8 of the University Bylaws shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure contained in this Article, except as set forth herein. The parties acknowledge that Chapter II, Section 4.8 of the University Bylaws contains an appeal process applicable to the discharge of a tenured bargaining unit faculty member for cause and agree that the process set forth therein shall be the only appeal and/or grievance process available to bargaining unit faculty members. If the Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer makes a decision to revoke a bargaining unit faculty member's tenure status after the hearing board had determined not to revoke such status, a grievance over the Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer's decision may be presented at Step Three of the Grievance Procedure in this Article.

In both procedures, bargaining unit faculty members retain the right to a Union representative.

8.5 Mediation

In the event that the parties cannot resolve the grievance at Step Three, before the grievance has been appealed to arbitration, the Union and the Employer may, by mutual consent, contact the Pennsylvania Bureau of Mediation or Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service ("FMCS") for grievance mediation. All time limits shall be suspended while mediation is pending.

8.6 Arbitration

1. If the grievance has not been resolved at Step Three, the Union, but not the individual bargaining unit faculty member(s), has the sole right to refer a grievance to arbitration and to conduct the proceeding as a party, and shall within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the written response from Step Three submit a written notice to the Provost, or their designee, of its intent to submit the grievance to binding arbitration. Failure by the Union to request arbitration within thirty (30) days of a denial will result in the grievance being denied and the right to arbitration is deemed waived.

2. The parties shall have the right to mutually agree upon the arbitrator, but in the event they cannot so agree within twenty (20) calendar days of receipt of the above notice, the parties shall notify the FMCS of their intent to arbitrate a grievance. FMCS shall submit a panel of arbitrators to each Party, and the arbitrator shall then be chosen in accordance with FMCS's then applicable rules. Each party shall alternately strike a name until one remains. The Employer shall strike the first name. The person remaining shall be the arbitrator. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with FMCS's then applicable rules of procedure.

3. All decisions of the selected arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Employer, the Union, and all relevant members of the bargaining unit.

4. The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, or modify this Agreement and no authority to modify deadlines contained herein. Each case shall be considered on its merits and the Agreement shall constitute the sole basis upon which the decision shall be rendered. If there is a question as to whether the arbitrator has jurisdiction to hear a case, this question must be heard and an immediate bench ruling issued by the arbitrator prior to their hearing and deciding the merits of the case.

5. The arbitrator shall confine themselves to the precise issue the parties have agreed to submit for arbitration and shall have no authority to determine any other issues not so submitted to them.

6. The arbitrator shall have no jurisdiction or authority to issue an award that changes, modifies or restricts any action taken by the Employer with respect to the exercise of management rights under Article 12 of this Agreement.

7. The arbitrator shall have no authority to substitute their judgment for that of the Employer regarding decisions involving academic matters, as set forth in Article 12.

8. The arbitrator shall be requested to issue their decision within thirty (30) calendar days after the hearing or receipt of the transcript of the hearing.

9. The cost of the arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties, including the arbitrator's fees and expenses and the cost of the hearing room. Each party shall pay its own individual expenses, including transcripts and the fees and reimbursement of its representatives and witnesses.

10. The parties agree to promptly give notice to one another of any subpoenas issued by the arbitrator.

11. No recordings may be made of the hearing, except as needed by the preparer of a transcript.

Article 9

Discipline and Discharge

9.1 Disciplinary Standards

1. Bargaining unit faculty members are subject to this Agreement and any Employer policies, rules, regulations, directives, or orders not expressly addressed in this Agreement.

2. The Employer has the right to conduct investigations into allegations of misconduct or violations of policy. Bargaining unit faculty members are required to cooperate in an investigation and provide truthful information.

3. The Employer shall not discipline or discharge any bargaining unit faculty member without just cause.

4. The Employer is committed to the use of progressive discipline, noting that when the severity of the alleged offense or bargaining unit faculty member's history of discipline warrants a deviation, the Employer has the right to do so. For example, under certain circumstances, suspension without pay or termination may be warranted on the first occurrence, even though the bargaining unit member has no prior record of having been disciplined.

5. The Employer will not make use of any disciplinary action that is older than three (3) years when determining disciplinary action against a bargaining unit faculty member, with the exception of discipline in excess of a written warning or any discipline related to discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct in violation of university policy. For discipline older than three (3) years, the Employer is not precluded from asserting that any disciplinary action served as notice to the bargaining unit faculty member of the issue(s), and may reference the issue(s) addressed therein in subsequent disciplinary charges.

6. Where allegations against a bargaining unit faculty member fall under an Employer policy, the investigation will be conducted in accordance with that policy's procedure, if applicable. If the investigation results in discipline, the only recourse available to the bargaining unit faculty member and/or the Union is pursuant to the grievance and arbitration procedure in this Agreement and the bargaining unit faculty member may not pursue any appeal process contained in the policy's procedure.

7. Copies of any documented disciplinary action shall be placed in the bargaining unit faculty member's personnel file.

9.2 Investigatory Interviews

When a bargaining unit faculty member reasonably believes that an interview with a managerial or supervisory employee may result in discipline, the bargaining unit faculty member has the right to be accompanied by a Union representative at any investigatory interview, at the request of the bargaining unit faculty member. The Employer will make a reasonable effort to notify the bargaining unit faculty member of this right prior to any investigatory interview; however, any failure by the Employer to provide such notice shall not be used as a basis to challenge just cause for discipline. If the bargaining unit faculty member requests a Union representative, the Employer shall grant the bargaining unit faculty member's request before proceeding with the interview, provided that the unavailability of a Union representative shall not delay an investigatory interview for more than twenty-four (24) hours. The Union representative shall not disrupt or impede the investigation or investigatory interview, but may assist the bargaining unit faculty member to the fullest extent allowed under PERA.

9.3 Predisciplinary Meetings

1. Prior to implementation of any disciplinary action, a bargaining unit faculty member will be provided with a predisciplinary meeting.

- a) The purpose of the predisciplinary meeting is to provide the bargaining unit faculty member an opportunity to respond to the allegations against them. The predisciplinary meeting is not an evidentiary hearing.
- b) Notice of the allegations against the bargaining unit faculty member will be provided to the bargaining unit faculty member no later than seven (7) calendar days prior to the predisciplinary meeting. Such notice will advise the bargaining unit faculty member of their right to be accompanied by a Union representative during the predisciplinary meeting. In the event of such request, the Employer shall grant the bargaining unit faculty member's request, provided that the unavailability of a Union representative shall not delay the predisciplinary meeting.
- c) Following the predisciplinary meeting, the bargaining unit faculty member will be given written notice of any disciplinary action to be imposed. A copy of the discipline shall be provided to the Union by U.S. mail and email within seven (7) calendar days of the issuance of the discipline.
- d) Bargaining unit faculty members may agree to waive this predisciplinary meeting and such waiver must be in writing.

2. In cases involving offenses that endanger the personal health, safety, and/or welfare of members of the university community, the Employer may immediately suspend a bargaining unit faculty member and place them on administrative leave with pay. The cases regarding which the Employer may take such action shall include, but not be limited to: possession of firearms or weapons on university property; the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of a controlled substance on university property or as part of any university activity; failure to comply with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the possession and consumption of alcohol; violating while on or in university facilities or vehicles, any municipal, county, state, or federal statute or ordinance; and any violation of the Employer's policies, procedures, and practices related to non-discrimination, equal opportunity, harassment, and/or sexual misconduct or any other relevant university policies. When such action is taken, the Employer will hold the predisciplinary meeting referenced in Paragraph 1 of Section 9.3 as expeditiously as possible following the suspension. The Employer agrees to notify the International Staff Representative of the Union as promptly as possible in cases of suspension of any bargaining unit faculty member but in no event any later than forty-eight (48) hours after the incident.

Article 10 Personnel Files

Personnel files for all bargaining unit faculty members shall be maintained, on a confidential basis, by the Employer. Bargaining unit faculty members may request to access their personnel files in accordance with University policy. Bargaining unit faculty members will include the reason for the request to allow the Employer to direct the request to the appropriate department/office. The reason for the request will not be used by the Employer for the purpose of denying such request.

Article 11 Union Communication and Access

11.1 Communications

1. The Union shall have the right to communicate with bargaining unit faculty members, provided such communication does not interfere with the work duties of any bargaining unit faculty member and is in accordance with University policy. To the extent that any University policy conflicts with the specific provisions of this Article, this Article shall control. By the first day of classes for the Fall and Spring semesters, the Union will provide the Employer with a list of Union representatives who are not employed by the Employer and who are involved in the administration of this Agreement, and those individuals shall have reasonable access to University facilities for the purpose of administering this Agreement, provided that such access does not interfere with the work duties of any bargaining unit faculty member. The Union shall notify the Employer of any changes to this list within five (5) business days after such change.

2. The Employer shall provide the Union with designated bulletin boards for various work locations for the purpose of informing bargaining unit faculty members of Union meetings, functions, elections and other affairs of the Union. The Employer shall determine the location of such bulletin boards, which must be reasonable in number and location for providing information as set forth above.

1. From time to time, the Union may request the use of certain facilities for the purpose of conducting meetings or other Union related business. Based on availability, the Employer will permit the Union to use certain facilities on campus and access services, catering, and equipment associated with the use of the facilities. In such cases, and where the Union exceeds six (6) meetings in an academic year, the Union will pay all customary fees and charges charged to non-university groups for its use of the facilities, services, and equipment. For the initial six (6) meetings, only the room or facility rental fee will be waived. All other fees shall apply. No fees will apply to rooms for which there are, as of the date of ratification of this Agreement, no customary fees. The Employer reserves the right to add or modify customary fees charged for the use of rooms, for which there currently are no such fees, provided that it gives the Union at least one hundred and twenty (120) days' notice of any such change.

2. To the extent the Employer's Human Resources or other University administrative department conducts a University- or campus-wide in-person orientation for new bargaining unit faculty members the University will afford the Union an opportunity to meet with bargaining unit faculty members for the final thirty (30) minutes of that orientation for the purpose of discussing membership, dues, dues deductions, authorization cards, and other related topics. To the extent the Employer conducts online orientation for such purposes for new bargaining unit faculty members, the University will, at the conclusion of the online orientation, provide bargaining unit faculty members access to a hyperlink provided by the Union, for the same purposes as described above.

2. In accordance with the rights established by Act 195 (Section 702), matters of inherent managerial policy are reserved exclusively to the Employer. These include but shall not be limited to such areas of discretion or policy as the functions and programs of the University, standards of services, the University's overall budget, utilization of technology, the organizational structure, and selection and direction of personnel. The Employer, however, shall be required to meet and discuss on policy matters affecting wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment upon request by the Union, and if applicable, shall bargain over the impact thereon.

3. The management, administration and control of the University's operations, facilities, programs, activities, resources, organizational structure, objectives, priorities, and mission, including the methods and means necessary to fulfill that mission, is vested exclusively in the Employer. The rights of the Employer enumerated in this Article apply equally with respect to all bargaining unit faculty and all units, schools, and departments within the University. 4. The above enumeration of management rights is not exhaustive and does not exclude other management rights not specified herein, nor shall the exercise or non-exercise of rights constitute a waiver of such rights by the Employer.

5. The parties recognize that none of the management rights enumerated in this Article, nor any matters of inherent managerial policy, shall be subjects of bargaining or grievances, unless the exercise of such rights violates any express written provision of this Agreement.

6. Management rights are limited only as expressly limited by the language of this Agreement, notwithstanding (or without regard to) any practices or customs that may now or in the future exist.

The parties recognize that historically some bargaining unit work has been performed by persons at the University who are not members of the bargaining unit, including graduate students, staff, postdoctoral associates, research associates, and supervisory or managerial personnel. The parties agree that performance of bargaining unit work by such individuals is not a violation of the Agreement. The parties acknowledge that the University's College in High School (CHS) program is not subject to this Agreement, except that bargaining unit faculty members who are involved in the CHS program are covered by the Agreement.

9. Nothing in this Article is meant to restrict the role or authority of established institutions of shared governance at the University, including the University Senate and Faculty Assembly, and campus, school, library and department shared governance bodies, from exercising their rights to create and/or recommend policies and practices regarding the operation of the University.

Article 13 Separability

If any term or provision of this Agreement is at any time declared to be invalid by a court or government agency of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not invalidate the entire Agreement. Such decision shall be confined in its operation to the specific term or provision directly involved in the controversy in which such decision was rendered and circumstances involved. All other terms and provisions of this Agreement not declared invalid shall remain in full force and effect. The parties shall meet and negotiate regarding the term or provision declared to be invalid and shall agree upon a replacement for it.

Article 14 Non-Discrimination, Anti-Harassment, and Anti-Bullying

1. The Employer, the Union, and bargaining unit faculty members affirm their dedication to the principles of equal opportunity and freedom from unlawful discrimination; as such, the Employer, the Union, and bargaining unit faculty members will not discriminate on account of any protected categories under current federal, state, or local law or Employer Policy, including the following: race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, ancestry, marital status, domestic partnership, familial status, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or membership or non-membership in, or activity on behalf of or in opposition to, the Union. Unlawful discrimination includes unlawful sexual harassment.

2. Violations of Paragraph 1 shall be reported through the Employer's designated process for reporting discrimination, harassment or retaliation. The Grievance and Arbitration process set forth in Article 8 is the exclusive procedure for challenging any discipline of a bargaining unit faculty member resulting from the Employer's investigation of any such report, and such grievance shall be filed at Step Three. Nothing herein is intended to prevent a bargaining unit faculty member from filing a claim of unlawful discrimination, harassment, or retaliation with any administrative agency or court of competent jurisdiction.

3. The Employer affirms and the Union acknowledges the University's obligations as a federal contractor with regard to affirmative action.

4. The Employer will offer training to all bargaining unit faculty members regarding unlawful discrimination. Bargaining unit faculty members will ordinarily be required to complete training regarding unlawful discrimination no more frequently than every two (2) years.

5. Bullying by the Employer, the Union, or any bargaining unit faculty member is prohibited. Bullying is defined as conduct that would be considered harassment under law or Employer policy but does not require discriminatory intent based on one of the legally protected characteristics listed in Paragraph 1.

6. To acknowledge the importance of promoting equity, diversity, and inclusion and promptly resolving issues relating to those principles, the Labor-Management Committee shall hold at least three dedicated Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) meetings in an academic year for the express purpose of addressing such issues and furthering related goals and initiatives. These meetings shall be in addition to the regularly scheduled Labor-Management Committee meetings for each term (see Article 6). In addition to the regular Labor-Management Committee members, participants in the EDI meetings may include bargaining unit faculty members on the relevant internal Union committees and additional Employer representatives. The number of additional participants in the EDI meetings shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties. The parties agree that the Labor-Management Committee will commit to discuss recommendations related to additional protected classes for consideration by the Employer related to the Employer's policy on Nondiscrimination, Equal Opportunity, and Affirmative Action.

The non-renewal of any bargaining unit faculty member for the reasons set forth herein shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure. Within thirty (30) days of the notice of non-renewal, the Union may request information relied upon by the Employer in connection with the reason for non-renewal provided in the notice. The Union may only file a grievance on the basis that the reason provided was untrue. It cannot grieve whether the Employer's reason was sufficient to support the non-renewal. For example, if the reason for non-renewal was insufficiency of enrollment and information provided by the Employer demonstrates that enrollment declined by 5%, the Union cannot grieve whether or not the decline in enrollment was sufficient to support the non-renewal decision.

d) Renewals are subject to satisfactory performance as set forth in Article 23.

5. Presumptive appointment renewals and minimum terms of appointments shall not apply to bargaining unit faculty who have been (1) subject to disciplinary action in excess of a written warning within the twelve months prior to their renewal date or discharged for just cause in accordance with Article 9 [Discipline and Discharge], (2) retired from the University, (3) subject to a performance improvement plan in accordance with Article 23 [Faculty Evaluations] and determined by the Employer to not be making significant progress towards achieving the performance goals set forth in the performance improvement plan, or (4) who are appointed as Visiting Faculty. If the bargaining unit faculty member is renewed following the investigation, the term of the renewed appointment shall be deemed to start on the date it would have started had the prior appointment term not been extended.

17.2 Promotion

1. Each school, regional campus, library or department, as applicable, will develop criteria and guidelines for promotion through the process described in the bylaws of each school, regional campus, library or department and said criteria and guidelines shall be approved by the Provost and, as applicable, the Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences.

2. The criteria and guidelines for promotion at each rank are set forth in the criteria and guidelines of the school, regional campus, library or department, as applicable, approved by the Dean, Director of the ULS or BLL or Associate Vice Chancellor for Health Sciences Library System, Regional Campus President, Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences, and Provost, as applicable.

3. To the extent that any of the criteria and guidelines of the Provost, Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences, ULS, BLL, HSLs, and schools, Regional Campuses, or departments regarding promotion conflict with the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall control.

4. All bargaining unit faculty members shall be provided at the time of their appointment with all criteria and guidelines for promotion that apply to their appointment. In the event of a change in the criteria and guidelines, bargaining unit faculty members who seek promotion within seven (7) years of the adoption of the new criteria and guidelines may elect to do so under the new criteria and guidelines or under those in effect at the time of their appointment.

5. Timeline for Promotion

a) Professor Ranks

- (ii) Promotion from the rank of Librarian II to Librarian III: During or after the last year of their first appointment as a Librarian II, bargaining unit faculty librarians may apply for a promotion to Librarian III.
- (iii) Promotion from the rank of Librarian III to Librarian IV: Any bargaining unit member obtaining the rank of Librarian III may request to be considered for promotion to the rank of Librarian IV.

c) Bargaining unit faculty members may initiate an application for promotion earlier than specified in this Section only if they obtain approval to do so in writing from their Chair, Dean, Director, or Regional Campus President, as applicable.

d) Final promotion decisions shall be made within a reasonable period.

6. The parties acknowledge that Employer Policy AC 28 contains an appeal process applicable to denial of a bargaining unit faculty member's promotion application and agree that the process set forth therein shall be the only appeal and/or grievance process available to bargaining unit faculty members. Under Policy AC 28, the Employer's decision to deny a bargaining unit faculty member's promotion application may be appealed only on the following grounds: (1) academic freedom violation; (2) discrimination; or (3) inadequate consideration. Appeals alleging any of the foregoing grounds alone or in combination with any allegation of procedural defect must follow the process set forth in AC 28. With respect to this Article, procedural defect means a failure to follow the process set forth (1) under the Bylaws of the University, (2) the procedure for evaluation for faculty contract renewal or promotion set forth in Section IV.A of the Procedure to Policy AC 28, and/or (3) the guidelines for promotion of the school, regional campus, library and/or department, as applicable.

Denial of a bargaining unit faculty member's application for promotion shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure, except for grievances alleging only a procedural defect as set forth above. Such grievance must comply with all requirements set forth in Article 8 [Grievance and Arbitration]. In such cases, if the grievance is submitted to arbitration and the arbitrator determines that a procedural defect occurred, the arbitrator may order the Employer to reconsider the bargaining unit faculty member for promotion during the following academic year, or may order that the procedural defect amounted to harmless error that does not require the Employer to reconsider the denial of promotion. Under no circumstances may an arbitrator direct that a bargaining unit faculty member be awarded promotion.

Bargaining unit faculty members may appeal only utilizing the process set forth in Policy AC 28 or the Grievance and Arbitration procedure, as set forth above, but may not utilize both procedures. In both procedures, bargaining unit faculty members have the right to a Union representative; however, if appealing under AC 28, such union representative would take the place of the advocate or observer of their choice.

The non-renewal of any bargaining unit faculty member for the reasons set forth herein shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure. Within thirty (30) days of the notice of non-renewal, the Union may request information relied upon by the Employer in connection with the reason for non-renewal provided in the notice. The Union may only file a grievance on the basis that the reason provided was untrue. It cannot grieve whether the Employer's reason was sufficient to support the non-renewal. For example, if the reason for non-renewal was insufficiency of enrollment and information provided by the Employer demonstrates that enrollment declined by 5%, the Union cannot grieve whether or not the decline in enrollment was sufficient to support the non-renewal decision.

8. Renewals are subject to satisfactory performance as set forth in Article 23.

Part-time bargaining unit faculty who request such work and are qualified to perform it, as determined by the Employer, shall receive preferential consideration to perform the work before it is offered to anyone outside the bargaining unit. The Office of the Provost shall consider input from the Labor-Management Committee in developing the process set forth herein.

11. In the event that a part-time bargaining unit faculty member applies for a full-time faculty position with the Employer, they will be considered on the merits of their application.

Bargaining unit faculty members may receive "Visiting" appointments for no more than three (3) consecutive academic years.

3. In the limited circumstance where a bargaining unit faculty member's "Visiting" appointment is renewed for three consecutive academic years, such individuals shall be notified three and a half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) months prior to the end of the appointment for the third consecutive academic year, if the Employer intends to appoint them to another classification or if the bargaining unit faculty member shall not receive another appointment, in which case their employment with the Employer shall end at the end of the third academic year.

4. The Labor-Management Committee shall meet and develop a process for the review of bargaining unit faculty members who hold appointments with the prefix "Visiting" and have been employed by the Employer for at least two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) academic years as of the date of ratification of this Agreement. In accordance with the process agreed upon through the Labor-Management Committee, each such bargaining unit faculty member shall be reviewed by the Employer with regards to whether they shall be transitioned into another classification, and if so, which classification is most appropriate. Those bargaining unit faculty members who will not be transitioned into another classification will be notified five and one half ($5\frac{1}{2}$) months prior to the end of their appointment.

5. If concerns arise regarding the use of "Visiting" appointments, the parties agree to discuss those concerns in the Labor-Management Committee. As part of that discussion, the University may also consider if any individual identified by the Union should be transitioned to another classification.

Article 20

Appointment, Promotion, and Renewal of Tenure Stream Faculty

1. This Article shall apply only to bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream.

2. Except as provided in this Agreement, appointment, renewal, promotion, and conferral of tenure for full time bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream shall be in accordance with the procedures in Chapter II, Article IV of the Bylaws of the University. To the extent that such procedures conflict with the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall control.

3. Except as provided in this Agreement, appointment, renewal, promotion, and conferral of tenure for part time bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream shall be in accordance with the procedures in Chapter II, Article V of the Bylaws of the University. To the extent that such procedures conflict with the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall control.

20.1 Appointment of Tenure Stream Faculty

1. Length of Appointment. Tenure stream appointments shall normally be for a period of either:

- a) twelve (12) months;
- b) ten (10) months; or
- c) nine (9) months (August 15 — May 15).

2. The length of appointment of a bargaining unit faculty member encompasses the calendar period of the appointment plus whatever time may be necessary for preparation and grade reporting.

3. Full-time tenure stream faculty on eight (8) month appointments at the time of ratification of this Agreement shall be transitioned to nine (9) month appointments at the time their appointment term renews, as applicable, and subject to the terms of this Agreement. Bargaining unit faculty members may request to remain on eight (8) month appointments, subject to approval by their Dean or regional campus President, as applicable. For bargaining unit faculty hired on or after the ratification of this Agreement, appointments shall be only for a length of twelve (12) months, ten (10) month or nine (9) months, unless otherwise approved for a different appointment term by their Dean or regional campus President, as applicable.

4. At the time of reappointment, bargaining unit faculty members may request to change between nine (9), ten (10), or twelve (12) month appointments. The Employer shall make a good faith effort to accommodate such requests, but shall not be required to grant the request.

5. Initial appointments of bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream shall be for a three (3) year term.

20.2 Renewal

1. Bargaining unit faculty members (excluding the School of Nursing)

- a) Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream, with the exception of bargaining unit faculty members appointed to the School of Nursing, will be reviewed for renewal in the third year of their first appointment, in accordance with the criteria for tenure and promotion as set forth in the Bylaws of the University, and as supplemented by the school, regional campus, and/or department, as applicable. Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream may only be renewed once for a three (3) year term appointment.
 - b) Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream, with the exception of bargaining unit faculty members appointed to the School of Nursing, who are not renewed will be offered a one (1) year terminal appointment following the end of their first appointment term.
 - c) Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream, with the exception of bargaining unit faculty members appointed to the School of Nursing, who have not been awarded tenure by the end of their second appointment will be notified of their termination prior to the end of the appointment and offered a one-year terminal appointment following the end of their second appointment term.
2. Bargaining unit faculty members in the School of Nursing
- a) Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream who are appointed to the School of Nursing will be reviewed for renewal in their second and fifth years in the tenure stream, in accordance with the criteria for tenure and promotion as set forth in the Bylaws of the University, and as supplemented by the school and/or department, as applicable. Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream may be renewed twice for a three-year term appointment.
 - b) Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream who are appointed to the School of Nursing who are not renewed at the end of either their first or second term will be offered a one (1) year terminal appointment following the end of their current appointment term.
 - c) Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream who are appointed to the School of Nursing who have not been awarded tenure by the end of their third appointment will be notified of their termination prior to the end of the appointment and offered a one (1) year terminal appointment following the end of their third appointment term.

20.3 Application for Tenure

- 1. Bargaining unit faculty members in the tenure stream may seek tenure only one time.

2. All bargaining unit faculty members shall be provided at the time of their initial appointment with all criteria and guidelines for tenure that apply to their appointment. In the event of a change in the criteria and guidelines, bargaining unit faculty members who seek tenure after the adoption of the new criteria and guidelines may elect to do so under the new criteria and guidelines or under those in effect at the time of their initial appointment.

3. In the event that a bargaining unit faculty member in the tenure stream applies for tenure prior to their sixth year in the tenure stream, or ninth year in the tenure stream for bargaining unit faculty members appointed to the School of Nursing, and tenure is not awarded, the bargaining unit faculty member's appointment in the tenure stream will terminate at the end of their current appointment term or one (1) year following the date of written notification of the decision, whichever is longer.

4. The parties acknowledge that Employer Policy AC 28 contains an appeal process applicable to denial of a bargaining unit faculty member's tenure application and agree that the process set forth therein shall be the only appeal and/or grievance process available to bargaining unit faculty members. Under Policy AC 28, the Employer's decision to deny a bargaining unit faculty member's tenure application may be appealed only on the following grounds: (1) academic freedom violation; (2) discrimination; or (3) inadequate consideration. Appeals alleging any of the foregoing grounds alone or in combination with any allegation of procedural defect must follow the process set forth in AC 28. With respect to this Article, procedural defect means a failure to follow the process set forth (1) under the Bylaws of the University, (2) the procedure for evaluation for faculty contract renewal or promotion set forth in Section IV.A of the Procedure to Policy AC 28, and/or (3) the guidelines for tenure of the school, regional campus, library and/or department, as applicable.

Denial of a bargaining unit faculty member's application for tenure shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure, except for grievances alleging only a procedural defect as set forth above. Such grievance must comply with all requirements set forth in Article 8 [Grievance and Arbitration]. In such cases, if the grievance is submitted to arbitration and the arbitrator determines that a procedural defect occurred, the arbitrator may order the Employer to reconsider the bargaining unit faculty member for tenure during the following academic year, or may order that the procedural defect amounted to harmless error that does not require the Employer to reconsider the denial of tenure. Under no circumstances may an arbitrator direct that a bargaining unit faculty member be awarded tenure.

Bargaining unit faculty members may appeal only utilizing the process set forth in Policy AC 28 or the Grievance and Arbitration procedure, as set forth above, but may not utilize both procedures. In both procedures, bargaining unit faculty members have the right to a Union representative; however, if appealing under AC 28, such Union representative would take the place of the advocate or observer of their choice.

5. The Employer, at its discretion, may grant requests by bargaining unit faculty members to pause the tenure clock or to temporarily transfer out of the tenure stream.

Article 21

Appointment and Promotion of Tenured Faculty

1. Appointment of tenured bargaining unit faculty members shall be in accordance with Chapter II, Article IV of the Bylaws of the University.

2. Tenure may only be held by Professors and Associate Professors, and only in the school or regional campus where tenure is granted.

3. The length of appointment of a bargaining unit faculty member encompasses the calendar period of the appointment plus whatever time may be necessary for preparation and grade reporting.

4. Promotion of Tenured Faculty

a) After three (3) years as Associate Professor with tenure, bargaining unit faculty may apply for promotion to the rank of Full Professor with tenure. Bargaining unit faculty members may initiate an application for promotion earlier than specified in this Paragraph only if they obtain approval to do so in writing from their Chair, Dean, or regional campus President, as applicable.

b) Final promotion decisions shall be made within a reasonable period.

c) All bargaining unit faculty members shall be provided at the time of their appointment to Associate Professor with tenure with all criteria and guidelines for promotion that apply to their appointment. In the event of a change in the criteria and guidelines, bargaining unit faculty members who seek promotion within seven (7) years of the adoption of the new criteria and guidelines may elect to do so under the new criteria and guidelines or under those in effect at the time of their appointment.

d) In the event that an Associate Professor with tenure is denied promotion to Full Professor with tenure, they may reapply for such promotion no earlier than one (1) year following denial of promotion.

5. The parties acknowledge that Employer Policy AC 28 contains an appeal process applicable to denial of a tenured bargaining unit faculty member's promotion application and agree that the process set forth therein shall be the only appeal and/or grievance process available to tenured bargaining unit faculty members. Under Policy AC 28, the Employer's decision to deny a tenured bargaining unit faculty member's promotion application may be appealed only on the following grounds: (1) academic freedom violation; (2) discrimination; or (3) inadequate consideration. Appeals alleging any of the foregoing grounds alone or in combination with any allegation of procedural defect must follow the process set forth in AC 28. With respect to this Article, procedural defect means a failure to follow the process set forth (1) under the Bylaws of the University, (2) the procedure for evaluation for faculty contract renewal or promotion set forth in Section IV.A of the Procedure to Policy AC 28, and/or (3) the guidelines for promotion of the school, regional campus, library and/or department, as applicable.

Denial of a tenured bargaining unit faculty member's application for promotion shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure, except for grievances alleging only a procedural defect as set forth above. Such grievance must comply with all requirements set forth in Article 8 [Grievance and Arbitration]. In such cases, if the grievance is submitted to arbitration and the arbitrator determines that a procedural defect occurred, the arbitrator may order the Employer to reconsider the bargaining unit faculty member for promotion during the following academic year, or may order that the procedural defect amounted to harmless error that does not require the Employer to reconsider the denial of promotion. Under no circumstances may an arbitrator direct that a tenured bargaining unit faculty member be awarded promotion.

Bargaining unit faculty members may appeal only utilizing the process set forth in Policy AC 28 or the Grievance and Arbitration procedure, as set forth above, but may not utilize both procedures. In both procedures, bargaining unit faculty members have the right to a Union representative; however, if appealing under AC 28, such Union representative would take the place of the advocate or observer of their choice.

Article 22 Workload

22.1 Workload Policies

1. Each school, regional campus, library or department, as applicable, will have a published workload policy, which defines the expectations for each category of teaching, scholarly work, clinical work, research, advising and/or mentoring, service, and professional responsibilities for each faculty rank, as applicable. Workload composition for each faculty rank must be specified in each workload policy, whether in terms of percentage or proportion of overall workload expectations, credit hour equivalents, or some other metric. All workload policies and/or changes thereto shall be developed through the process described in the bylaws of each school, regional campus, library or department and shall be approved by the Office of the Provost and the Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences, as applicable. This Article 22 shall not apply to bargaining unit faculty members appointed to the Falk School.

2. Teaching Load

- a) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, the normal teaching load for full time bargaining unit faculty members will be no more than twelve (12) credits per term or twenty-four (24) credits per academic year for bargaining unit faculty members at the regional campuses, and nine (9) credits per term or eighteen (18) credits per academic year for bargaining unit faculty members at the Pittsburgh campus.

- b) Within these limits, teaching loads, including credit hour equivalents, shall be determined by the workload policy of the school, regional campus, or department, as applicable.
- c) Bargaining unit faculty members may be assigned to teach credits in addition to the applicable normal teaching load, in the Employer's discretion, subject to Section 22.3 of this Article regarding overloads.

22.2 Individual Workload Expectations

1. All bargaining unit faculty members will be notified of their workload expectations consistent with the terms of the workload policy of the school, regional campus, library or department, as applicable. The parties agree that providing the applicable workload policy shall inform the bargaining unit faculty member of their workload expectations. Workload expectations include but are not limited to teaching responsibilities, scholarly work, clinical work, research, advising and/or mentoring, service, and professional responsibilities, as applicable, and may be modified at the discretion of the Employer, in accordance with the applicable workload policy.

2. Bargaining unit faculty members will be given reasonable advance notice of any changes to their workload expectations and will be provided a reasonable opportunity to discuss such changes with their supervisor.

22.3 Teaching Overloads

1. Overload is defined as a teaching load in an academic term or year that exceeds a normal teaching load, as set forth in Section 22.1.2 of this Article and the workload policy for the bargaining unit faculty member's school, regional campus, or department, as applicable.

2. Bargaining unit faculty members who are interested in teaching overload courses will express their interest in teaching such courses in the semester prior to when the overload course is offered by submitting a form to the Employer that will include the course and/or topic the bargaining unit faculty member is interested in teaching. Before assigning any bargaining unit faculty member an involuntary overload, the Chair, Dean or regional campus President, as applicable, will use their best efforts to assign overload courses to qualified bargaining unit faculty members that have expressed an interest in teaching overload courses.

3. The Employer will make a good faith effort to avoid assigning involuntary overloads to bargaining unit faculty members for an unreasonably extended period.

4. Bargaining unit faculty members will be compensated for overload credits in accordance with Article 27 [Compensation]. Alternatively, bargaining unit faculty members may elect to reduce their teaching load in the next academic year through a course release equal to the overload credits taught, subject to approval by their Chair, Dean, or regional campus President, as applicable.

Article 23

Faculty Evaluations

1. All bargaining unit faculty members shall be reviewed on an annual basis, or on an interval appropriate to their appointment, in accordance with the April 29, 2021 memorandum titled Revised Guidelines for the Annual Review of Faculty-Updated ("Provost Guidelines"), including but not limited to the following:

- a) Each school, regional campus, department, or library (ULS, BLL and HSLs), as applicable, will develop criteria and guidelines for evaluation, including a teaching assessment plan, through the process described in the bylaws of each school, regional campus, department, or library and said criteria and guidelines shall be approved by the Provost and, as applicable, the Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences.
- b) All bargaining unit faculty shall be notified annually about the annual review process, including timing, procedures, and information they should expect to provide and receive in their formal annual evaluation.
- c) Evaluations must include an overall assessment of performance, including whether or not a bargaining unit faculty member's performance was satisfactory, as well as more detailed assessment of specific performance areas.
 - (i) For tenure-stream and tenured bargaining unit faculty, performance in teaching, research, scholarship, and service, including clinical work as such work relates to teaching, research, scholarship, and service, should be addressed.

- d) Evaluations shall summarize achievements and accomplishments of the bargaining unit faculty member.
- e) Where appropriate for the position, Teaching Assessments shall be conducted for bargaining unit faculty members pursuant to each School or Regional Campus' teaching assessment plan. Teaching Assessments may include peer evaluation of teaching, in accordance with procedures developed by each school, regional campus, and/or department, as applicable, and approved by the Provost and, as applicable, the Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences.

- f) Student surveys may be considered in evaluating a bargaining unit faculty member's performance, but will not be a sole or primary factor in determining that a bargaining unit faculty member's teaching performance was unsatisfactory.
- g) Any areas of performance that are judged to be deficient or in need of improvement should be explicitly identified, and specific guidance should be provided about how these performance issues can be remedied. Guidance may include school, regional campus, departmental, library, University, and external resources, along with a recommended timeline for demonstrable improvement.
- h) Bargaining unit faculty members are required to complete a self-evaluation, the form of which will be provided by the Employer. Any bargaining unit faculty member who fails to complete a self-evaluation will receive an unsatisfactory performance evaluation.
- i) Annual evaluations shall be considered in determining whether to award promotions and/or tenure to eligible bargaining unit faculty members, and are conducted in addition to any applicable promotion and/or tenure review processes. Where relevant, progress toward promotion and/or tenure should be noted in annual evaluations. Recommendations regarding accomplishments, inadequacies, and areas for improvement that may affect promotion/tenure shall be clearly communicated. Resources to assist bargaining unit faculty members toward promotion/tenure shall also be provided as needed.

Evaluations should include any changes in job duties or expectations for the coming year.

- j) The bargaining unit faculty member will be entitled to respond in writing to their annual evaluation.

2. To the extent that the Provost Guidelines conflict with any provision of this Article 23, the provisions of this Article shall control.

3. Should the Employer determine, based on the evaluation of any bargaining unit faculty member, that their performance is unsatisfactory in any area, the evaluator and the bargaining unit faculty member will meet to formulate a performance improvement plan (PIP) to remedy the unsatisfactory performance.

- a) The PIP shall include concrete steps to be taken by the bargaining unit faculty member to remedy their performance, how those steps will be measured, and a timeline for the required improvement.
- b) The PIP will be issued to the bargaining unit faculty member.

4. Bargaining unit faculty members who fail to satisfy the requirements of a PIP may be subject to discipline up to and including termination, pursuant to Article 9.

Article 24

Layoffs

1. The Employer may lay off tenured and tenure-stream bargaining unit faculty members for the following reasons:

- a) Financial exigency that is demonstrably bona fide; or
- b) Termination of a school or regional campus.

2. Layoffs of bargaining unit faculty members with tenure and in the tenure stream because of financial exigency shall be in accordance with Chapter II, Sections 4.9 and 5.4 of the Bylaws of the University.

3. In the event of layoff of tenured bargaining unit faculty under I.b., the Employer will attempt to reassign bargaining unit faculty with tenure, in accordance with Employer Policy AC-64.

4. The Employer may lay off full-time appointment stream bargaining unit faculty members during the term of their appointments for the following reasons:

- a) Financial exigency that is demonstrably bona fide; or
- b) Restructuring, reorganization or discontinuance of academic programs, position elimination, and/or termination of a school or regional campus.

5. The Employer may lay off part-time appointment stream bargaining unit faculty members during the term of their appointments due to financial exigency that is demonstrably bona fide.

6. The Employer shall make a good faith effort to reassign tenure-stream and full-time appointment stream bargaining unit faculty members subject to layoff to appropriate academic appointments in other schools, regional campuses, or departments within the University. The Employer retains the sole discretion to determine qualifications for any such reassignment. In the event the bargaining unit faculty member declines the reassignment, they shall be entitled to receive severance pay as set forth below.

7. In the event of termination of a school or regional campus, tenured and tenure-stream bargaining unit faculty members shall be entitled to the following:

Less than eight (8) years of service	Twelve (12) months' severance pay
More than eight (8) years of service	Twelve (12) months' severance pay plus one (1) month's pay for each full year of service in excess of eight (8) years

8. No tenured or tenure stream bargaining unit faculty member shall receive less than the minimum severance pay under Section 24.7.

Less than eight (8) years of service	Four (4) months' severance pay
More than eight (8) years of service	Four (4) months' severance pay plus one-half (1/2) month's pay for each full year of service in excess of eight (8) years

Non-renewal of a full-time appointment stream bargaining unit faculty member's appointment is not a layoff, and receipt of notice of non-renewal in accordance with Article 17 does not entitle the bargaining unit faculty member to severance pay pursuant to this Section.

10. Except in the event of a financial exigency, the following shall apply to layoffs of full-time bargaining unit faculty members:

- a) Notice of layoff shall be provided to affected bargaining unit faculty members as soon as practicable. Where circumstances permit, bargaining unit faculty members will be notified at least six (6) months prior to the date of the layoff.
- b) Each bargaining unit faculty member who has received notice of layoff:

- (i) will be released at the end of any term or session from their appointment upon request, even though the appointment period may extend beyond that time.
 - (ii) will be given a personal letter from the Provost or Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences that expressly states that the separation from employment does not imply a negative judgment about the bargaining unit faculty member's individual performance but is due to a program change.
- c) The Provost or Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences shall offer to send letters of explanation and professional resume on behalf of affected bargaining unit faculty members to other institutions to assist in efforts to find them suitable placement elsewhere. The Office of the Provost or the Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences shall provide assistance in placement and counseling.

11. Except as expressly provided herein, Employer Policy and Procedure AC 64 shall not apply to layoffs of bargaining unit faculty members.

12. Bargaining unit faculty members shall be required to sign a general release prior to receiving the severance benefits set forth above. The terms of the general release shall be agreed upon by the parties.

13. The parties recognize and agree that layoff decisions are matters of inherent managerial policy under PERA § 702, and therefore layoffs for the reasons set forth in Sections 24.1 and 24.2 of this Article, except as provided in this Paragraph, shall not be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration procedure. Within thirty (30) days of the notice to the Union of a contemplated layoff, the Union may request the information relied upon by the Employer in connection with the contemplated layoff. The Union may only file a grievance on the basis that the reason was untrue. It cannot grieve whether the Employer's reason was sufficient to support the layoff.

14. Bargaining unit faculty members who are laid off pursuant to the provisions of this Article may apply for any vacant position for which they are qualified.

Article 25

There shall be no strikes, slowdowns, cessation of work or interruptions of operations of the Employer by the bargaining unit faculty members during the term of this Agreement.

The Union, its officers, agents, and representatives shall not authorize, ratify, assist or encourage any strikes, slowdowns, cessation of work, or interruptions of operations of the Employer by bargaining unit faculty members at the University during the term of this Agreement. Informational picketing by bargaining unit faculty members on property owned or operated by the University shall be conducted in accordance with University Policy and subject to First Amendment protections.

Should any bargaining unit faculty member engage in such conduct, the Union's sole obligation shall be to endeavor within seventy-two (72) hours after receipt of written notice thereof from the Employer to bring about a cessation of such conduct.  - (i) Twelve (12) months; or Within thirty (30) days of the notice of non-renewal, the Union may request information relied upon by the Employer in connection with the reason for non-renewal provided in the notice. The Union may only file a grievance on the basis that the reason provided was untrue. It cannot grieve whether the Employer's reason was sufficient to support the non-renewal. For example, if the reason for non-renewal was insufficiency of enrollment and information provided by the Employer demonstrates that enrollment declined by 5%, the Union cannot grieve whether or not the decline in enrollment was sufficient to support the non-renewal decision.

e) Renewals are subject to satisfactory performance as set forth in Article 23.

4. Presumptive appointment renewals and minimum terms of appointments shall not apply to bargaining unit faculty who have been (1) subject to disciplinary action in excess of a written warning within the twelve months prior to their renewal date or discharged for just cause in accordance with Article 9 [Discipline and Discharge], (2) retired from the University, (3) subject to a performance improvement plan in accordance with Article 23 [Faculty Evaluations] and determined by the Employer to not be making significant progress towards achieving the performance goals set forth in the performance improvement plan, or (4) who are appointed as Visiting Educators. All newly hired Falk School bargaining unit faculty members will be placed in the Educator Level appropriate to their years of relevant and/or comparable teaching experience, as determined by the Employer.

Falk School bargaining unit faculty are expected to be in their classrooms and ready to receive students at the start of the school day. If students remain in their care at 3:45 p.m., bargaining unit faculty will bring the students to a location designated by the Employer prior to leaving. Where such location is not available, the faculty member will remain with students who would otherwise be unattended. While the Employer retains sole decision making authority, the Employer shall notify and provide the Union an opportunity to meet and discuss prior to making changes to these starting and ending times.

Notwithstanding the above, the Employer shall not extend the total length of the school day, which is seven (7) hours and fifteen (15) minutes, without negotiation with the Union.

2. Part-time appointment stream bargaining unit faculty members must present their jury summons to their department or unit head as promptly as practicable in advance of their service date.

29.6 Falk School Bargaining Unit Faculty

1. Faculty Medical and Family Leave

All full-time bargaining unit faculty members appointed to the Falk School shall be eligible for Faculty Medical and Family Leave (FMFL) in accordance with University Policy AC 26. University Policy AC 26 shall be construed in a manner that covers brief illnesses, in addition to longer-term illnesses and health conditions.

2. Paid Personal Leave

Full-time bargaining unit faculty members appointed to the Falk School shall be eligible for four (4) paid personal days. Personal leave may not be accumulated or carried over into subsequent academic years. Personal leave will not be paid out at time of termination.

Falk School full-time bargaining unit faculty members must request to take such leave in advance, in accordance with Falk School policies and procedures and subject to approval by the Falk School Director. Falk School bargaining unit faculty members may not take more than three (3) consecutive personal days at a time during the school year.

3. Bereavement Leave

Falk School full-time bargaining unit faculty members will be eligible for a paid leave of three (3) working days in the event of a miscarriage or stillborn birth, or the death of a spouse, registered domestic partner, child, stepchild, child-in-law, parent, stepparent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or parent of registered domestic partner. Bereavement leave associated with funeral services must be taken within seven (7) calendar days of the death. Where a bargaining unit faculty member is required to travel to attend funeral services outside the United States, they may request an additional leave without pay for up to three (3) days, which must be taken continuously with the paid bereavement leave. Such requests shall be granted at the discretion of the Employer. Falk School bargaining unit faculty members are eligible for one (1) day of paid leave to attend the funeral of an aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, cousin, sibling-in-law, or sibling of a registered domestic partner.

If a bargaining unit faculty member has exhausted their bereavement leave and needs additional time off, they should consult with the Falk School Director or their designee.

4. Jury Duty

Falk School full-time bargaining unit faculty members must present their jury summons to their department or unit head as promptly as practicable in advance of their service date. Falk School full-time bargaining unit faculty members serving on jury duty shall be excused from work for the days on which they serve, and they shall experience no loss in compensation for the period of their jury duty to the extent such service does not exceed two (2) weeks per calendar year. For jury duty that exceeds two (2) weeks, bargaining unit faculty members may request an extension of paid leave, at the Employer's discretion.

29.7 Military Leave

The Employer shall grant unpaid military leave and re-employment rights to eligible bargaining unit faculty members, as required by applicable federal and state law.

29.8 Union Conferences and Trainings

1. The Employer will provide a total of ten (10) days of leave per academic year for use by designated bargaining unit faculty members for the purpose of attending conferences, trainings, or other programming sponsored or endorsed by the Union. The Union may designate no more than two (2) bargaining unit faculty members for eligibility for leave under this Section. Leave taken pursuant to this Section will not impact pay.

2. Bargaining unit faculty members designated by the Union for leave pursuant to Section 29.8.1 must be active members of the Labor-Management Committee.

3. Bargaining unit faculty members who take leave pursuant to this Section will not be released from teaching responsibilities for the purposes of this Section. Participation in Union conferences, trainings and other programming will count as a service activity.

29.9 Union Workload Buyouts

1. The Union may buy out a one or two course release or a workload equivalent as defined by the department for ten (10) individual bargaining unit faculty members, per academic year, to be used for purposes of conducting Union business related to the administration of this Agreement, processing grievances under this Agreement, and bargaining for a successor agreement. The Union may request to buy out additional workload or course releases, and shall be granted at the Employer's discretion. Availability of workload buyouts is subject to the operational needs of the University and the bargaining unit faculty member's school, regional campus, library and/or department, as applicable. If the Employer is unable to accommodate requested workload buyouts in a given term or academic year, the Employer shall work with the Union to accommodate the request in a future term or academic year. No more than one (1) bargaining unit faculty member per academic program per year will be granted a workload buyout pursuant to this Section.

2. Requests for workload buyouts must be submitted in advance of the semester or term for which the buyout is requested, as follows:

- a) Requests for fall semester must be received by January 15.
- b) Requests for spring semester must be received by August 15.
- c) Requests for summer term must be received by November 15.

3. Workload buyout requests, including the costs of such requests, will be processed in accordance with the bargaining unit faculty member's school, regional campus, library and/or department policies and/or procedures, as applicable.

4. Full-time bargaining unit faculty who receive course release or workload buy outs pursuant to this section shall continue to be deemed full-time for all purposes under this Agreement.

5. Union activities performed using such release time will count as a service activity.

Article 30 Sabbaticals and Professional Development Leave

30.1 Sabbatical Leave

1. Tenured Associate Professors, Tenured Professors, and bargaining unit library faculty who have been granted expectation of continued employment, with at least twelve (12) terms of full-time service, exclusive of time spent on leave, shall be eligible for sabbatical leaves in accordance with University Policy AC 58.

2. The terms and conditions of sabbatical leave, including the process for requesting a sabbatical leave and any requirements upon return, are set forth in University Policy and Procedure AC 58.

3. The granting of a sabbatical leave is a decision involving academic matters and depends on the school's, regional campus's or department's ability to maintain necessary teaching schedules.

4. Where a bargaining unit faculty member has met the eligibility requirements for a sabbatical leave, and there is a delay in the start of such leave due to a decision by the University, the faculty member will continue to accrue time towards the next sabbatical leave.

30.2 Paid Professional Development Leave

1. Full-time appointment stream bargaining unit faculty members with at least twelve (12) terms of full-time service, exclusive of time spent on leave, shall be eligible for a one (1) term paid professional development leave.

2. The process for requesting a professional development leave (including timelines for submission) is the same as the process for requesting a sabbatical leave, as set forth in University Policy and Procedure AC 58.

3. Applications for professional development leave shall include a written proposal describing a specific professional development project, including the relevance of the project to the bargaining unit faculty member's job duties and/or area(s) of scholarship or research.

4. The granting of a professional development leave is a decision involving academic matters and may be denied at the discretion of the Employer. The Employer shall award no more than fifty (50) professional development leaves in an academic year.

In no case shall the Employer be required to grant the total number of allotted professional development leaves in any given academic year. The Employer reserves the right to determine the number of professional development leaves granted each semester or term.

5. Bargaining unit faculty members who are granted a professional development leave must return for at least one (1) full term following their leave. A bargaining unit faculty member who does not return to the University for at least one (1) full term following their leave shall be liable for full reimbursement of the compensation that was paid during the professional development leave. Bargaining unit faculty members required to reimburse the University pursuant to this Paragraph may request a repayment plan, and the Employer agrees to work with the bargaining unit faculty member to develop a repayment plan upon such request.

6. Bargaining unit faculty members returning from professional development leave shall file a report summarizing their activities and indicating the extent to which the purposes of the leave described in the proposal were achieved with their Dean or Regional Campus President, and the Office of the Provost, within one (1) term of returning from leave. Failure to comply with this requirement will result in the bargaining unit faculty member's ineligibility for future leaves pursuant to this Section.

7. The parties understand and acknowledge that the professional development leave provided for in this Section is a new program and will go into effect in the 2025-2026 academic year. Inclusion and scope of this leave in future collective bargaining agreements shall be dependent on and informed by the Employer's assessment of the effectiveness of the program during the term of this Agreement based on the reports submitted by participating bargaining unit faculty members and relevant educational, service and/or research outcomes related to the bargaining unit faculty member's leave project.

30.3 Unpaid Leave for Professional Enhancement

1. Full-time bargaining unit faculty members may request up to one (1) academic year of unpaid leave for the purpose of professional enhancement in accordance with University Policy AC 24.

2. Full-time bargaining unit faculty members may continue their health insurance, dental and vision coverage during an unpaid leave for professional enhancement, and are responsible for paying their share of the premium for any benefit they choose to continue. If the bargaining unit faculty member terminates coverage during an unpaid leave for professional enhancement, they must submit the appropriate enrollment forms to the Benefits Department to reactivate participation within sixty (60) days after their return date from leave.

3. During unpaid leave for professional enhancement, all Employer contributions toward retirement are suspended.

4. When a tenure-stream faculty member is granted a leave of absence, the term of the probationary appointment may be extended and the period of the leave will not be counted as part of the probationary period of service.

Article 31 Professional Development Funds

Available professional development funds will be distributed in accordance with the policies, procedures and practices of each academic unit, at the Employer's sole discretion.

Article 32 Section Headings

The use of section or paragraph headings throughout this Agreement is intended for ease of reference and shall not be deemed to limit, diminish or in any way modify the terms or conditions of any provision of this Agreement.

Article 33
Duration

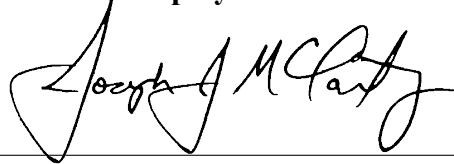

This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and be binding on the parties for the period beginning at 12:00 a.m. on May 15, 2024 ending at 11:59 p.m. on June 30, 2026.

Either party desiring to modify or terminate this Agreement must notify the other of its desire, in writing, in accordance with the requirements of Article VIII of PERA. In the absence of such notice, this Agreement shall automatically be renewed from year to year for a successive term of one (1) year until a party gives notice of its desire to modify or terminate this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound hereby, each party has caused this Agreement to be executed by the hand of its proper officer or officers.
